

Introduction

Our adaptation is based off of Act 2 Scene 1, where the conspirators are meeting at Brutus' house the night before Caesar's murder. We wanted to draw out Brutus' inner conflict about killing Caesar and is final reasoning that led him to be firm in his decision. We put an emphasis on the ill-founded reasoning behind his decision and his almost twisted thoughts about honor and sacrifice. The conspirators are painted as thinking of themselves, although misguidedly, as heroes. This scene is pivotal for Brutus, as it galvanizes him to kill Caesar. To represent Brutus' inner conflict, there are going to be two actors representing contrasting thoughts of Brutus, Iris and I. Ivy will play Brutus, Dhruvil as Cassius, and Pandrew as Lucius and Decius.
